

Brief Profile

Mr. Jason Sanglir

Executive Director, BAN

Mr Jason has done his Master of Arts - Environment, Development, and Sustainability at Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand and Bachelor of Science - Business Administration (Finance) at the Master's University, Santa Clarita, California, USA. He has Certifications in Impact Measurement & Management for the SDGs, Duke University and Management of Social Transformation on Rural Sustainability (MOST Programme), United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

Mr Jason Sanglir brings with him a wealth of experience within the country and abroad and has an impressive track record of leading successful initiatives in previous roles.

He has expertise in collaborating with Government, donors & local organisations in planning and coordination for various activities. He has done extensive fieldwork in the rural regions around Southeast Asia implementing community development projects and involving local stakeholders in the decision-making process.